Song Review Quotes:

- “Metallica sound. Singer can actually sing! That is pretty cool. So many in this genre do not have any real vocal talent. The musicians are pro-level too. They know the riffs and rhythms for the genre and nail it in this track.” Crowd Review for Lower I Go
- “A very powerful vocal performance, which is supported with a strong rhythm guitar and a really good solo guitar... This will be played on radio of all genres and could even manage to get into the charts.” Crowd Review of Myself
- “Stoner rock with a Queens of the Stone Age vibe. Haunting guitar riff gives the sense of impending doom and the echoed vocals add to that mood.” Crowd Review of Who Am I.
- “Their new album, "Faces For A Moment" is bound to be enjoyed by everyone in the US with it's heady mix of Alternative to Indie and Chris's great songwriting... What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas, true, but this band has no worry of that!” Review by Kerry Hall, Creative Director of itMattersRadio.com
