Song Review Quotes:

- “Metallica sound. Singer can actually sing! That is pretty cool. So many in this genre do not have any real vocal talent. The musicians are pro-level too. They know the riffs and rhythms for the genre and nail it in this track.” Crowd Review for Lower I Go
- “A very powerful vocal performance, which is supported with a strong rhythm guitar and a really good solo guitar... This will be played on radio of all genres and could even manage to get into the charts.” Crowd Review of Myself
- “Stoner rock with a Queens of the Stone Age vibe. Haunting guitar riff gives the sense of impending doom and the echoed vocals add to that mood.” Crowd Review of Who Am I.
